PROPOSAL FOR PUBLICATION OF NEW CHAPTER 21, INTERCONNECTION AGREEMENTS FOR TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE PROVIDERS, AS APPROVED AT THE SEPTEMBER 18, 2003 OPEN MEETING

The Public Utility Commission of Texas (commission) proposes new Chapter 21, Interconnection Agreements for Telecommunications Service Providers. The new rules in Chapter 21 are necessary to establish procedures for interconnections agreements and amendments to interconnection agreements, and formal and informal dispute resolution, mediation, and arbitration of interconnections agreements. Chapter 21 will replace the rules currently existing in Chapter 22, subchapters P, Q, and R. In addition, the commission is simultaneously proposing under separate publication in this issue of the Texas Register, the repeal of Chapter 22, Subchapters P, Q, and R. Project Number 25599 is assigned to these proceedings.

Chapter 21 consist of the following sections: Subchapter A, General Provisions and Definitions — §§21.1, Purpose and Scope; 21.3, Definitions; 21.5, Representative Appearances; 21.7, Standards of Conduct; 21.9, Computation of Time; 21.10, Waiver; 21.11, Suspension of Rules and Good Cause Exceptions; Subchapter B, Pleadings, Documents, and Other Materials — §§21.31, Filing of Pleadings, Documents and Other Materials; 21.33, Formal Requisites of Pleadings and Documents to be Filed with the Commission; 21.35, Service of Pleadings and Documents; 21.37, Examination and Correction of Pleadings and Documents; 21.39, Amended Pleadings; 21.41, Motions; Subchapter C, Preliminary Issues, Orders, and Proceedings — §§21.61, Threshold Issues and Certification of Issues to the Commission; 21.63, Interim Issues and Orders; 21.65, Interlocutory Appeals; 21.67, Dismissal of a Proceeding; 21.69, Summary Decisions; 21.71, Sanctions; 21.73, Consolidation of Dockets, Consolidation of Issues, and Joint Filings; 21.75, Motions for Clarification and Motions for Reconsideration; 21.71, Confidential Material; Subchapter D, Dispute Resolution — §§21.91, Mediation; 21.93, Voluntary Alternative Dispute Resolution; 21.95, Compulsory Arbitration; 21.97, Approval of Negotiated Agreements; 21.99, Approval of Arbitrated Agreements; 21.101, Approval of Amendments to Existing Interconnection Agreements; 21.103, Approval of Agreements Adopting Terms and Conditions Pursuant to Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96) §252(i); 21.105, Approval of Agreements Adopting Terms and Conditions of the T2A; Subchapter E, Post-Interconnection Agreement Dispute Resolution — §§21.121, Purpose; 21.123, Informal Settlement Conference; 21.125, Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding; 21.127, Request for Expedited Ruling; and 21.129, Request for Interim Ruling Pending Dispute Resolution.

The new sections are proposed to clarify existing procedures and to be more administratively efficient for both the commission and parties. The proposed new sections reduce the number of copies required and allow for the dissemination of information by electronic mail and website to reduce costs; modify timelines for greater efficiency; modify the confidential information requirements to be consistent with the commission's procedural rule §22.71 of this title, relating to Filing of Pleadings, Documents and Other Materials; establish procedures for motions for reconsideration; delete existing requirements no longer necessary due to uncontested cases being processed administratively; and other minor changes to better reflect commission practice.

Diane Parker, Arbitration Project Manager, Policy Development Division, has determined that for each year of the first five-year period the proposed sections are in effect there will be no fiscal implications for state or local government as a result of enforcing or administering the sections.

Ms. Parker has determined that for each year of the first five years the proposed sections are in effect the public benefit anticipated as a result of enforcing the sections will be the more efficient processing of interconnection agreement proceedings with rules that better meet the needs of parties and the commission and the codification of commission practice and policy regarding interconnection agreement disputes, mediations, and arbitrations. There will be no adverse effect on small businesses or micro-businesses as a result of enforcing these sections. There is no anticipated economic cost to persons who are required to comply with the sections as proposed.

Ms. Parker has also determined that for each year of the first five years the proposed sections are in effect there should be no effect on a local economy, and therefore no local employment impact statement is required under Administrative Procedure Act §2001.022.

The commission staff will conduct a public hearing on this rulemaking under Government Code §2001.029 at the commission's offices, located in the William B. Travis Building, 1701 North Congress Avenue, Austin, Texas 78701, on Monday, December 8, 2003 at 9:30 a.m. in the Commissioners' Hearing Room located on the 7th floor.

Comments on the proposed new sections (16 copies) may be submitted to the Filing Clerk, Public Utility Commission of Texas, 1701 North Congress Avenue, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326, within 30 days after publication. Reply comments may be submitted within 45 days after publication. The commission invites specific comments regarding the costs associated with, and benefits that will be gained by, implementation of the proposed sections. The commission will consider the costs and benefits in deciding whether to adopt the sections. All comments should refer to Project Number 25599.

In addition, the commission seeks comments on the following issues: (1) Proposed new §21.10 allows the commission to find that parties have waived applicable deadlines by implication under certain circumstances; and (2) proposed §21.99(b) and §21.101(h) allow the commission to remand an agreement to the presiding officer for further proceedings. What effects does the proposed language for §§21.10, 21.99(b) and 21.101(h) have on the FTA's nine-month deadline for compulsory arbitrations?

These new sections are proposed under the Public Utility Regulatory Act, Texas Utilities Code Annotated §14.002 and §14.052 (Vernon 1998, Supplement 2003) (PURA), which provides the Public Utility Commission with the authority to make and enforce rules reasonably required in the exercise of its powers and jurisdiction, including rules of practice and procedure.

Cross Reference to Statutes: Public Utility Regulatory Act: §14.002, §14.052 and the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996, 47 U.S.C. §151, et. seq.

A decision by a presiding officer to exclude a party, witness, attorney, or other representative shall be subject to immediate appeal to the commission.

(b) Communications.

- (1) Ex parte communications. Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, a presiding officer assigned to render a decision may not communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any substantive issues currently the subject of a dispute resolution proceeding before that presiding officer with any person, party, or their representatives, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. - (2) Communications between presiding officers and Commissioners and employees of the commission acting as advisors to Commissioners. Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, a presiding officer assigned to render a decision may not communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any substantive issues currently the subject of a dispute resolution proceeding before that presiding officer with any commissioner, or with an employee of the commission acting as an advisor to the commission, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

The grounds may include any disability or matter, not limited to those set forth in subsection (c) of this section. The motion shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall be verified by affidavit.
- (2) The motion shall be filed within five working days after the facts that are the basis of the motion become known to the party. The motion shall be served on all parties by hand delivery, facsimile transmittal, or overnight courier delivery.
- (3) Written responses to motions for disqualification or recusal shall be filed within three working days after the receipt of the motion. The presiding officer may require that responses be made orally at a prehearing conference or hearing.
- (4) The presiding officer shall not rule on any issues that are the subject of a pending motion for recusal or disqualification. The commission shall appoint another presiding officer to preside on all matters that are the subject of the motion for recusal until the issue of disqualification is resolved.
- (5) The parties to a proceeding may waive any ground for recusal or disqualification after it is fully disclosed on the record, either expressly or by their failure to take action on a timely basis.
- (6) If the presiding officer determines that a motion for disqualification or recusal was frivolous or capricious, or filed for purposes of delaying the proceeding, sanctions may be imposed in accordance with §21.71 of this title.

- (7) Disqualification or recusal of a presiding officer, in and of itself, has no effect upon the validity of rulings made or orders issued prior to the time the motion for recusal was filed.
- (e) Subsequent proceedings. A commission employee who has participated as a mediator under §21.91 of this title (relating to Mediation), a presiding officer under §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration), or a staff member designated as an advisor to the presiding officer under §21.95 of this title may not participate as an advisor to Commissioners in any subsequent commission proceedings concerning the review and approval of the resulting agreement pursuant to the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96) §252(e), except in cases where two or more of the Commissioners act as the presiding officer. In a proceeding to approve an arbitrated agreement pursuant to §21.99 of this title (relating to Approval of Arbitrated Agreements), the commission or the presiding officer may call upon an employee who has participated on the arbitration team under this chapter to the extent necessary to explain the arbitration team's final decision.

§21.9. Computation of Time.*(a) Counting days.

- (1) Except for computation of the arbitration window under Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96), in computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this chapter, by order of the commission or any presiding officer, or by any applicable statute, the period shall begin on the day after the act, event, or default in question. The period shall conclude on the last day of the designated period unless that day is a day the commission is not open for business, in which event the designated period runs until the end of the next day on which the commission is open for business. The commission shall not be considered to be open for business on state holidays on which only a skeleton crew is required.
- (2) In computing the window for arbitration under FTA96, the arbitration window shall be computed inclusive of the 135th and 160th day of the party's receipt of a request for negotiation under FTA96 §252.

(b) Extensions.

- (1) Documents or pleadings. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the time for filing any documents or pleadings may be extended by the presiding officer, upon a written filing or an oral request on the record made prior to the expiration of the applicable period of time, showing that there is good cause for such extension of time and that the need for the extension is not caused by the neglect, indifference, or lack of diligence of the party making the motion.

- (2) Decisions. The time for issuing any decision by a presiding officer or the commission may be extended by the presiding officer in a written order for good cause unless the decision deadline is prescribed by FTA96. Decision deadlines pursuant to FTA96 may be waived or extended by parties' written agreement or oral agreement on the record.

§21.10. Waiver.

- (a) Implied waiver. In the absence of a specific written waiver or oral waiver on the record, the presiding officer or the commission may evaluate parties' scheduling conflicts and ongoing disputes and determine that parties have waived applicable deadlines by implication.

- (b) Order. Upon a finding of waiver by implication, the presiding officer shall issue an order revising the procedural schedule, as appropriate.

§21.11. Suspension of Rules and Good Cause Exceptions.

- (a) Suspension. The commission may suspend the operation of one or more of the sections in this chapter if there exists a public emergency or imperative public necessity and the commission ascertains that suspension will best serve the public interest and will not prejudice the rights of any party.

- (b) Good cause exception. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or Chapter 22 of this title (relating to Practice and Procedure), except where prohibited by statute, the presiding officer or the commission may grant exceptions to any requirement in this chapter or in a commission-prescribed form for good cause.

- (1) A pleading may be amended without leave of the presiding officer, provided that the amended pleading is served upon all parties, is filed no later than ten days after the initial pleading was filed, and does not seek relief for which notice in accordance with this chapter has not been provided. The filing of an amended pleading shall restart the time in which a party may respond to the filing.
- (2) A party must seek authorization to file an amended pleading if the amended pleading seeks a new type of relief for which notice in accordance with this chapter has not been provided.
- (3) Any amended pleading offered for filing more than ten days after the initial pleading was filed will be considered by the presiding officer only if there is a showing of good cause for such filing and that consideration of such filing will not unduly delay the proceeding by injecting issues to which the remaining parties may be entitled to respond. If additional notice is required or additional time needed for opposing parties to respond to the proposed pleading, the presiding officer may order such additional notice or time as is reasonable under the circumstances.

- (b) Amendments to conform to issues tried at hearing without objection. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried or otherwise heard or argued at hearing by express or implied consent of the parties, upon a determination by the presiding officer that no prejudice to any of the parties will occur, the issues shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Amendment of the pleadings to conform them to the evidence may be made with leave of the presiding officer upon any party's motion until the close of evidence, but failure to so amend shall not affect whether the issues may be properly considered by the presiding officer.

§21.41. Motions.

- (a) General requirements. A motion shall be in writing, unless the motion is made on the record at a prehearing conference or hearing. It shall state the relief sought and the specific grounds supporting a grant of relief. If the motion is based upon alleged facts that are not a matter of record, the motion shall be supported by an affidavit. Written motions shall be served on all parties in accordance with §21.35 of this title (relating to Service of Pleadings and Documents).
- (b) Time for response. Unless otherwise provided by the presiding officer, commission rule, or statute, a responsive pleading, if made, shall be filed by a party within five business days after receipt of the pleading to which the response is made.
- (c) Service. Unless otherwise established by the receiving party, if service is made by hand delivery, facsimile transmission, or electronic mail, it shall be presumed that all pleadings are received on the day filed. If service is made by overnight delivery, it shall be presumed that pleadings are received on the day after filing. If service is made by regular mail, it shall be presumed that pleadings are received on the third day after filing.
- (d) Rulings on motions. The presiding officer shall serve orders ruling on motions upon all parties, unless the ruling is made on the record in a hearing or prehearing conference open to the public.

(e) Motions for continuances.

- (1) Motions for continuance and for extension of a deadline shall set forth the specific grounds for which the moving party seeks continuance and/or extension and shall reference all other motions for continuance and/or extension filed by the moving party in the proceeding. The moving party shall attempt to contact all other parties and shall state in the motion each party that was contacted and whether that party objects to the relief requested. The moving party shall have the burden of proof with respect to the need for the continuance and/or extension.
- (2) Continuances will not be granted based on the need for discovery if the party seeking the continuance previously had the opportunity to obtain and/or compel discovery from the person from whom discovery is sought, except when necessary due to discovery abuses, surprise or discovery of facts or evidence which could not have been discovered previously through reasonably diligent effort by the moving party.
- (3) The presiding officer may grant timely filed motions for continuance and/or extension of deadline continuances agreed to by all parties provided that any applicable statutory deadlines are extended as necessary.

(f) Deadlines for motions for continuance and extension of filing deadline.

- (1) Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, motions for continuance of a prehearing conference, informal settlement conference, or discovery conference shall be in writing and shall be filed no less than two business days prior to the conference or hearing.

- (2) Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, motions for continuance of the hearing on the merits shall be in writing and shall be filed not less than three business days prior to the hearing. In addition to the requirements in subsection (e)(1) of this section, motions for continuances shall state proposed dates for a rescheduled hearing.
- (3) Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, motions for extension of filing deadline shall be in writing and shall be filed not less than one business day prior to the filing deadline.
- (4) Untimely motions for continuance and/or extension of a deadline shall be presumed denied. The moving party has the burden to show good cause for untimely filing.

Subchapter C. PRELIMINARY ISSUES, ORDERS, AND PROCEEDINGS.*§21.61. Threshold Issues and Certification of Issues to the Commission.

- (a) Threshold issues. Threshold issues are legal or policy issues that a presiding officer determines to be of such significance to the proceeding that these issues should be addressed prior to the other issues in the proceeding. Threshold issues include, but are not limited to, issues to be certified to the commission.
- (1) Threshold issues may be identified by the presiding officer or by motion of a party to the proceeding. Parties shall be given an opportunity to brief the question of threshold issues. At the discretion of the presiding officer, reply briefs may be permitted. Any determination on threshold issues shall be made in a written order.
- (2) Once a presiding officer has determined that there is a threshold issue(s) in a proceeding, the presiding officer shall take up the threshold issue(s) prior to proceeding with the other issues or certify the issue(s) to the commission pursuant to subsection (b) of this section. A decision on a threshold issue is not subject to motion for reconsideration.
- (b) Certification. Certified issues shall be addressed prior to proceeding with the other issues in the proceeding.

- (1) Issues for certification. The presiding officer may certify to the commission a significant issue that involves an ultimate finding in the proceeding. Issues appropriate for certification are:
  - (A) the commission's interpretation of its rules and applicable statutes;
  - (B) which rules or statutes are applicable to a proceeding; or
  - (C) whether commission policy should be established or clarified as to a substantive or procedural issue of significance to the proceeding.
- (2) Procedure for certification. The presiding officer shall submit the certified issue to the Policy Development Division, with notice to the parties when the issue is so submitted. The Policy Development Division shall place the certified issue on the commission's agenda to be considered at the earliest time practicable.
- (3) Abatement.
  - (A) In a compulsory arbitration, the presiding officer may abate all or a part of the proceeding while a certified issue is pending only if agreed to by the parties.
  - (B) In a post-interconnection dispute proceeding, the presiding officer may abate all or a part of the proceeding while a certified issue is pending at the presiding officer's discretion.
- (4) Commission action. The commission shall issue a written decision on the certified issue no later than six working days after the open meeting at which the issue is decided by the commission, unless extended for good cause. A commission decision on a certified issue is not subject to motion for reconsideration.

§21.63. Interim Issues and Orders.

The presiding officer may issue interim orders addressing motions, procedural and discovery matters, requests for interim relief, and such other matters as may aid in the conduct of the hearing and the efficient and fair disposition of the proceeding. Interim orders may be written or stated orally on the record.

§21.65. Interlocutory Appeals.

The commission may consider an appeal of an interlocutory or interim order only when it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by a verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result from enforcement of the order, and when the appellant clearly shows that it is entitled to preservation of the status quo pending issuance of a final arbitration order. As a condition to granting interlocutory relief, the commission may require the appellant to provide security in an amount and form (e.g., bond or escrow) to be determined by the commission.

§21.67. Dismissal of a Proceeding.*(a) Motions for dismissal.

- (1) Upon the motion of the presiding officer or the motion of any party, the presiding officer may dismiss, with or without prejudice, any proceeding without an evidentiary hearing, for any of the following reasons:
  - (A) lack of jurisdiction;
  - (B) moot questions or obsolete petitions;
  - (C) res judicata;
  - (D) collateral estoppel;
  - (E) unnecessary duplication of proceedings;
  - (F) failure to prosecute;
  - (G) failure to state a claim for which relief can be granted; or
  - (H) other good cause shown.
- (2) The party that initiated the proceeding shall have five business days from the date of receipt to respond to a motion to dismiss. If a hearing on the motion to dismiss is held, that hearing shall be confined to the issues raised by the motion to dismiss.
- (3) If the presiding officer determines that the proceeding should be dismissed, the presiding officer shall issue an order dismissing the proceeding.

- (4) An order dismissing a proceeding under paragraph (3) of this subsection may be appealed pursuant to §21.75 of this title (relating to Motions for Clarification and Motions for Reconsideration).

(b) Withdrawal of application.

- (1) A party that initiated a proceeding may withdraw its application, petition, or complaint, without prejudice to refiling of same, at any time before that party has filed its direct testimony.
- (2) After the filing of its direct testimony, a party may withdraw its application, petition, or complaint, without prejudice to refiling of same, only upon a finding of good cause by the presiding officer.
- (3) In the absence of a finding of good cause, a party, after the filing of its direct testimony, may withdraw its application, petition, or complaint, with prejudice to refiling of same.
- (4) Alternatively, in the absence of a finding of good cause, a party, after the filing of its direct testimony, may withdraw its application, petition, or complaint without prejudice if all parties agree. If parties do not agree, the withdrawing party may be allowed to withdraw without prejudice only upon the payment of the other parties' reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
- (5) If withdrawal of an application is approved, the presiding officer shall issue an order of dismissal with or without prejudice, as appropriate.

§21.69. Summary Decision.

- (a) Motion for summary decision. The presiding officer may grant a motion for summary decision on any or all issues to the extent that the pleadings, affidavits, materials obtained by discovery or otherwise, admissions, matters officially noticed, or evidence of record show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a decision in its favor, as a matter of law, on the issues expressly set forth in the motion.
- (b) Filing and contents of motion. Any party to a proceeding may move for summary decision on any or all of the issues. The motion may be filed at any time before the close of the hearing on the merits. The party filing the motion shall demonstrate that the issue or issues may be resolved by summary decision in accordance with the standard set forth in subsection (a) of this section. Affidavits in support of the motion shall be based on personal knowledge and shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence. A motion for summary decision shall specifically describe the facts upon which the request for summary decision is based, the information and materials which demonstrate those facts, and the laws or legal theories that entitle the movant to summary decision.
- (c) Response to motion. Any response to a motion for summary decision shall be filed within the time set by the presiding officer. A party opposing the motion shall show, by affidavits, materials obtained by discovery or otherwise, admissions, matters officially noticed, or evidence of record, that there is a genuine issue of material fact for determination at the hearing, or that summary decision is inappropriate as a matter of law.

- (d) Hearing on the motion. If appropriate, the presiding officer shall set the motion for hearing.

- (e) No further hearing. No further evidentiary hearing shall be held on issues for which summary decision has been granted. The presiding officer will issue a decision or interim order on the issues recommended to be resolved by summary decision. Parties may file motions to reconsider and replies to motions to reconsider recommending resolution of issues by summary decision within the time set by the presiding officer. An order granting or denying partial summary decision is appealable to the commission.

§21.71. Sanctions.

- (a) Causes for imposition of sanctions. A presiding officer, on his or her own motion or on the motion of a party, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing, may impose appropriate sanctions against a party or its representative for:
- (1) filing a motion or pleading that was brought in bad faith, for the purpose of harassment, or for any other improper purpose, such as to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of the proceeding;
  - (2) abusing the discovery process in seeking, making or resisting discovery;
  - (3) failing to obey an order of the presiding officer or the commission.
- (b) Types of sanctions. A sanction imposed under subsection (a) of this section may include, as appropriate and justified, issuance of an order:
- (1) disallowing further discovery of any kind or a particular kind by the disobedient party;
  - (2) charging all or any part of the expenses of discovery against the offending party or its representative;
  - (3) holding that designated facts be deemed admitted for purposes of the proceeding;
  - (4) refusing to allow the offending party to support or oppose a designated claim or defense or prohibiting the party from introducing designated matters in evidence;
  - (5) disallowing in whole or in part requests for relief by the offending party and excluding evidence in support of such requests;

- (6) punishing the offending party or its representative for contempt to the same extent as a district court;
  - (7) requiring the offending party or its representative to pay, at the time ordered by the presiding officer, the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by other parties because of the sanctionable behavior; and
  - (8) striking pleadings or testimony, or both, in whole or in part, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed.
- (c) Imposition of sanctions by the commission. In addition to the sanctions listed in subsection (b) of this section that may be imposed by a presiding officer, except for subsection (b)(6) of this section, the commission, after notice and opportunity for hearing, may impose sanctions including:
- (1) disallow the disobedient party's rights to participate in the proceeding;
  - (2) dismiss the application with or without prejudice;
  - (3) institute civil action; or
  - (4) impose any other sanction available to the commission by law.
- (d) Procedure. A motion for sanctions may be filed at any time during the proceeding or may be initiated sua sponte by the presiding officer.
- (1) A motion to compel discovery is not a prerequisite to the filing of a motion for sanctions.

- (2) A motion should contain all factual allegations necessary to apprise the parties and the presiding officer of the conduct at issue, should request specific relief, and shall be verified by affidavit. To the extent that expenses, including attorney's fees, are requested as relief, the requesting party shall provide detailed billing records.
- (3) A motion shall be served on all parties. Upon receipt of the motion, a hearing shall be held on the motion.
- (4) Any order regarding sanctions issued by a presiding officer shall be appealable. Any sanction imposed by the presiding officer shall be automatically stayed to allow the party to appeal the imposition of the sanction to the commission.

§21.73. Consolidation of Dockets, Consolidation of Issues, and Joint Filings.

- (a) Consolidation of dockets. The commission or presiding officer may on its own motion or upon a motion from a party, to the extent practical, consolidate separate dispute resolution proceedings and the approval proceedings pursuant to this chapter.

- (b) Consolidation of issues. The commission or presiding officer may on its own motion or upon the motion of a party, to the extent practical, consolidate similar issues from separate dispute resolution and approval proceedings pursuant to this chapter.

- (c) Joint filings or joinder.
  - (1) Joint filings. Parties may jointly file dispute resolution and approval proceedings when there are common issues of law or fact.
  - (2) Joinder. A person may request joinder when there are common issues of law or fact and shall agree to be bound by any judgment rendered as to the common issues.
  - (3) Factors to be considered. The commission or presiding officer shall determine whether the proceedings should be maintained as a joint proceeding or be severed or should be consolidated in whole or in part. In making this determination the commission or presiding officer shall consider:
    - (A) administrative burden on the parties and the commission;
    - (B) whether there are issues of fact or law common to the proceedings;

- (C) whether separate proceedings would create a risk of inconsistent resolutions; and
- (D) whether allowing joinder or consolidation would result in undue delay of the proceedings.

§21.75. Motions for Clarification and Motions for Reconsideration.

- (a) Motions for clarification. Motions for clarification apply only to Arbitration Awards. Motions for clarification may be made to the presiding officer requesting that an ambiguity be clarified or an error, other than an error of law, be corrected.
- (1) Procedure. A motion for clarification shall be filed within ten working days of the issuance of the presiding officer's decision or order. The motion for clarification shall be served on all parties by hand delivery, facsimile transmission, or by overnight courier delivery. Responses to a motion for clarification shall be filed within five working days of the filing of the motion.
  - (2) Content. A motion for clarification shall specify the alleged ambiguity or error and, as appropriate, include proposed contract language that corrects the alleged ambiguity or error.
  - (3) Denial or granting of motion. The presiding officer shall grant or deny the motion within ten business days of the filing of the motion. If the motion is granted, the presiding officer shall issue a decision within 15 business days of the filing of the motion.
- (b) Motions for reconsideration. Motions for rehearing, appeals, or motions for reconsideration shall be styled "Motion for Reconsideration" and shall be made directly to the commission. For purposes of dispute resolution and approval proceedings the terms "appeal," "motion for rehearing," and "motion for reconsideration" are interchangeable.

(1) Limitations.

- (A) Only parties to the negotiation in a compulsory arbitration pursuant to §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration) may file motions for reconsideration.
- (B) In a proceeding pursuant to §21.97 of this title (relating to Approval of Negotiated Agreements), only parties to the negotiated agreement may file motions for reconsideration. Issues subject to motions for reconsideration are limited to modifications made to the agreement.
- (C) In a proceeding pursuant to §21.99 of this title (relating to Approval of Arbitrated Agreements), only parties to the arbitrated agreement may file motions for reconsideration.
- (D) In a proceeding pursuant to §21.125 of this title (relating to Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding), only parties to the agreement may file motions for reconsideration. Issues subject to motions for reconsideration are limited to interpretations of and modifications made to the negotiated agreement.
- (E) In a proceeding pursuant to §21.101 of this title (relating to Approval of Amendments to Existing Interconnection Agreements), only parties to the amended agreement may file motions for reconsideration. Issues subject to motions for reconsideration are limited to amendments or modifications made to the agreement.

(F) In a proceeding pursuant to §21.105 of this title (relating to Approval of Agreements Adopting Terms and Conditions of T2A), only parties to the agreement may file motions for reconsideration. Issues subject to motions for reconsideration are limited to non-T2A portions of the agreement.

(G) Any motions for reconsideration not filed by parties will be considered as comment filed by an interested party.

(2) Procedure. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed within 20 days of the issuance of the order under consideration. The motion for reconsideration shall be served on all parties by hand delivery, facsimile transmission, or by overnight courier delivery. Responses to a motion for reconsideration shall be filed within ten days of the filing of the motion.

(3) Content. A motion for reconsideration shall specify the reasons why the order is unjustified or improper. If the moving party objects to contract language recommended by the presiding officer, then the motion shall contain alternative contract language along with an explanation of why the alternative language is appropriate.

(4) Agenda ballot. Upon filing a motion for reconsideration, the Policy Development Division shall send separate ballots to each Commissioner to determine whether the motion will be considered at an open meeting. The Policy Development Division shall notify the parties by facsimile and electronic mail whether any Commissioner by individual ballot has added the motion to an open meeting agenda, but will not identify the requesting Commissioner(s).

(5) Denial or granting of motion.

(A) The motion is deemed denied if, after five business days of the filing of a motion, no Commissioner by separate agenda ballot has placed the motion on the agenda for an open meeting. In such event, the Policy Development Division shall so notify the parties by facsimile and electronic mail.

(B) If a Commissioner does ballot in favor of considering the motion, it shall be placed on the agenda for the next regularly scheduled open meeting or such other meeting as the Commissioner may direct by the agenda ballot. In the event two or more Commissioners vote to consider the motion, but differ as to the date the motion shall be heard, the motion shall be placed on the latest of the dates specified by the ballots.

§21.77. Confidential Material.

- (a) General. If any party believes that any material it files with the commission or provides to the presiding officer during any proceeding under this chapter should be exempt from disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act (TPIA), it may designate such material as confidential information and submit the information under seal, pursuant to the requirements of §22.71(d) of this title (relating to Filing of Pleadings, Documents and Other Materials). Material is presumed to be subject to disclosure under the TPIA unless designated as confidential.
- (b) Disputes. In the event that a presiding officer believes that the material is not confidential, the presiding officer shall, unless waived by the party challenging the declassification, hold a hearing regarding declassification of the material. In the event a party disputes another party's designation of material as confidential, such party shall file a motion challenging the designation. The challenge shall include a statement as to why the material should not be held to be confidential under current legal standards, or that the party asserting confidentiality did not allow counsel to review such materials. The party asserting confidentiality has three business days after the presiding officer notifies the party of his belief that the material is not confidential, or after another party's challenge is filed, to respond and bears the burden of proof on confidentiality. In determining whether material is exempt from disclosure, the presiding officer shall consider whether:

- (1) the party asserting confidentiality has demonstrated a specific, serious, and substantial interest which clearly outweighs:
    - (A) the presumption of openness; and
    - (B) any probable adverse affect that sealing will have upon the general public;and
  - (2) no less restrictive means than sealing the material will adequately and effectively protect the specific interest asserted.
  - (3) Any presiding officer's decision relating to whether or not material is confidential is subject to motion for reconsideration to the commission. A party shall have three business days from the date of the presiding officer's decision to file a motion for reconsideration. The commission's decision shall be deemed a final administrative decision.
- (c) Exemption from disclosure. Material received by the commission or by a presiding officer in accordance with this procedure shall be treated as exempt from public disclosure until and unless such confidential information is determined to be public information pursuant to a specific provision in the Texas Public Information Act, an Open Records Decision by the Attorney General, an order of the presiding officer entered after notice to the parties and hearing, or an order of a court having jurisdiction.
- (d) Material provided to parties. Material claimed to be confidential information must be provided to the other parties to the arbitration hearing provided they agree in writing to treat the material as confidential information. One copy of the material shall be provided to each party. The receiving party shall keep the confidential information properly secured during all times when the documents are not being reviewed by a person authorized to do so. The receiving party shall only make copies of the confidential information as permitted by the protective order in place in the proceeding.

- (e) Review by parties. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the presiding officer, each receiving party may designate no more than eight individuals associated with the party who will be allowed access to the confidential information. The individuals who may have access to the confidential information shall be limited to the receiving party's counsel of record, regulatory personnel acting at the direction of counsel, and subject matter experts and outside consultants employed by the receiving party. These individuals may use the confidential information only for the purpose of presenting or responding to matters raised in the arbitration hearing during the course of that proceeding. These individuals shall not disclose the confidential information to any person who is not authorized under this section, or the protective order in affect for that proceeding, to view this information.
- (f) Acknowledgment. Each individual who is provided access to the confidential information shall sign a notarized statement affirmatively stating that the individual has personally reviewed this section and the protective order in the proceeding and understands and will observe the limitations upon the use and disclosure of confidential information. By signing such statements a party may not be deemed to have acquiesced in the designation of the material as confidential information or to have waived any rights to contest such designation or to seek further disclosure of the confidential information.

- (g) Disposition of confidential information. Upon the completion of commission proceedings to review the arbitration agreement pursuant to FTA96 §252 and any appeals thereof, confidential information received by the parties shall be returned to the producing party. Any notes or work product prepared by the receiving party which were derived in whole or in part from the confidential information shall be destroyed at that time. Material filed with the commission will remain under seal at the commission and will continue to be treated as confidential information under this chapter. The commission may destroy confidential information in accordance with its records retention schedule.
- (h) Use in other proceedings. Any confidential information produced pursuant to this section may not be used in any other proceedings before the commission. However, this section does not prevent the discovery or admissibility of any material otherwise discoverable, merely because the material was presented in the course of an arbitration hearing under this section.

Subchapter D. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.*§21.91. Mediation.

- (a) Request for mediation. Any party negotiating a request for interconnection, services, or network elements under the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96) §251 may request, in writing, at any time, that the commission assist the parties by mediating any differences that have arisen in the negotiations. The request shall identify the parties involved in the negotiations, the potential issues for which mediation may be needed and, if possible, an estimate of the time period during which mediation will be pursued.
- (b) Mediator. If all parties agree to mediation, then the commission shall notify the parties of the commission employee who is assigned to serve as a mediator. The commission employee assigned to serve as a mediator may not participate in arbitration or review and approval proceedings initiated under this chapter. The mediator will work with the parties to establish an appropriate schedule and procedure for mediating any disputes. The mediator's role is limited to assisting the parties in attempting to reach an agreed resolution of the issues.
- (c) Procedure. Mediation proceedings shall not be transcribed and only parties to the negotiation may participate in the mediation proceeding.

- (d) Mediation and formal dispute resolution. In the event a party negotiating a request for interconnection, services, or network elements under FTA96 has requested both formal dispute resolution and mediation, and the responding party has agreed to mediation, the mediation will precede formal dispute resolution and any procedural deadlines applicable to formal dispute resolution are tolled for the duration of the mediation proceedings, including time needed for commission approval of a mediated agreement. To the extent parties do not successfully mediate all matters at issue, the formal dispute resolution proceeding shall not be reinitiated until the parties jointly file an update of unresolved issues and a revised procedural schedule.

§21.93. Voluntary Alternative Dispute Resolution.

In order to facilitate negotiated resolutions of any dispute concerning a request for interconnection, services or network elements pursuant to the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96) §251, the parties are encouraged, but not required, to pursue any method of alternative dispute resolution agreeable to them, including, without limitation, mediation or private binding arbitration, in which the commission is not a direct participant. Agreements reached through the parties' use of alternative dispute resolution methods will be considered as equivalent to negotiated agreements, and will be processed for review and approval pursuant §21.97 of this title (relating to Approval of Negotiated Agreements).

§21.95. Compulsory Arbitration.*(a) Request for arbitration.

- (1) Any party to negotiations concerning a request for interconnection, services or network elements pursuant to the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96) §251 may request arbitration by the commission by filing with the commission's filing clerk a petition for arbitration. The petitioner shall send a copy of the petition and any documentation to the negotiating party with whom agreement cannot be reached not later than the day on which the commission receives the petition.
- (2) The petition must be received by the commission during the period from the 135th to the 160th day (inclusive) after the date the negotiating party received the request for negotiation. The commission shall perform a sufficiency review of the petition. To the extent that a petition is determined to be insufficient, the commission shall file a notice of insufficiency within five working days of receipt of the petition. In the absence of a notice of insufficiency, the petition shall be presumed sufficient.
- (3) Where a petition for arbitration is found insufficient, the presiding officer may consider dismissal without prejudice pursuant to §21.67 of this title (relating to Dismissal of a Proceeding) and order the petitioner to refile.
- (4) A petition that is procedurally sufficient must be on file with the commission by the 160th day after the date on which petitioner requested negotiation.

- (5) In addition to the requirements of form specified in §21.33 of this title (relating to Formal Requisites of Pleadings and Documents to be Filed with the Commission) the petition for arbitration shall include:
- (A) the name, address, telephone number, facsimile number, and email address of each party to the negotiations and the party's designated representative;
  - (B) a description of the parties' efforts to resolve their differences by negotiation, including but not limited to the dates of the request for negotiation and the projected timeline for compliance under FTA96 deadlines;
  - (C) a Decision Point List (DPL) that includes a list of any unresolved issues and the position of each of the parties on each of those issues;
  - (D) proposed contract language for each unresolved issue;
  - (E) a list of the issues that have been resolved by the parties, including the submittal of agreed contract language, and how such resolution complies with the requirements of the FTA96;
  - (F) if the request concerns a request for interconnection under §26.272 of this title (relating to Interconnection), the material required by §26.272(g) of this title;
  - (G) the most current version of the interconnection agreement being negotiated by the parties, if any, containing both the agreed language and the disputed language of both parties; and
  - (H) a certificate of service.

- (b) Response. Any non-petitioning party to the negotiation shall respond to the request for arbitration by filing the response with the commission's filing clerk and serving a copy on each party to the negotiation. Pursuant to FTA96 §252(b)(3) the response must be filed within 25 days after the commission received the request for arbitration. The response shall indicate any disagreement with the matters contained in the petition for arbitration, including a detailed response to the DPL and alternative proposed contract language, and may provide such additional information as the party wishes to present.
- (c) Selection and replacement of presiding officer.
- (1) Upon receipt of a complete petition for arbitration, a presiding officer shall be selected to act for the commission, unless two or more of the Commissioners choose to hear the arbitration en banc. The parties shall be notified of the commission-designated presiding officer, or of the Commissioners' decision to act as presiding officer themselves. The presiding officer along with designated commission staff will act as an arbitration team. The presiding officer may be advised on legal and technical issues by members of the arbitration team. The commission staff members selected to be part of the team shall be identified to the parties.
  - (2) If at any time a presiding officer is unable to continue presiding over a case, a substitute presiding officer shall be appointed who shall perform any remaining functions without the necessity of repeating any previous proceedings. The substitute presiding officer shall read the record of the proceedings that occurred prior to their appointment before issuing an arbitration award or other decision.

- (d) Participation. Only parties to the negotiation may participate as parties in the arbitration hearing. The presiding officer may allow interested persons to file a statement of position and/or list of issues to be considered in the proceeding.
- (e) Prehearing conference; challenges. As soon as practical after selection, the presiding officer shall schedule a prehearing conference with the parties to the arbitration. At the prehearing conference, parties should be prepared to raise any challenges to the appointment of the presiding officer or to the inclusion of any issue identified for arbitration in the petition and responses. If such challenges are not raised at the first prehearing conference, they shall be deemed waived by the parties. The presiding officer shall serve parties with the orders ruling on challenges within ten working days of the first prehearing conference. The presiding officer has the authority to schedule additional prehearing conferences to consider discovery, procedural schedules, clarification of issues, amending pleadings, stipulations, evidentiary matters, requests for interim relief, and any other matters as may assist the disposition of the proceedings in a fair and efficient manner.
- (f) Notice. The presiding officer shall make arrangements for the arbitration hearing, which may not be scheduled earlier than 35 days after the commission receives a complete request for arbitration. The presiding officer shall notify the parties, not less than ten days before the hearing, of the date, time, and location of the hearing.

- (g) Record of hearing. The arbitration hearing shall be open to the public. If any party requests it, a stenographic record shall be made of the hearing by an official court reporter appointed by the commission. It is the responsibility of the party ordering the stenographic record to request that the commission have an official reporter present. A party may purchase a copy of the transcript from the official reporter at rates set by the commission. The court reporter shall provide the transcript and exhibits in a hearing to the presiding officer at the time the transcript is provided to the requesting party. If no court reporter is requested by a party, the presiding officer shall record the proceedings and maintain the official record and exhibits. Each party to the arbitration hearing shall be responsible for its own costs of participation in the arbitration process.

(h) Hearing procedures.

- (1) The parties to the arbitration are entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.
- (2) Redirect may be allowed at the discretion of the presiding officer, provided that parties have reserved time for redirect.
- (3) The presiding officer may temporarily close the arbitration hearing to the public to hear evidence containing information filed as confidential under §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Material). The presiding officer shall close the hearing only if there is no other practical means of protecting the confidentiality of the information.

- (4) In addition to providing sufficient copies for all parties, the presiding officer, and, if appropriate, the court reporter, parties shall provide three copies of all exhibits for purposes of appeal at the hearing.
- (i) Applicable rules. The rules of privilege and exemption recognized by Texas law shall apply to arbitration proceedings under this subchapter. The Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Texas Rules of Civil Evidence, Texas Administrative Procedure Act §2001.081, and Chapter 22 of this title (relating to Practice and Procedure) may be used as guidance in proceedings under this chapter.
- (j) Authority of presiding officer. The presiding officer has broad discretion in conducting the arbitration hearing, including the authority given to a presiding officer pursuant to §22.202 of this title (relating to Presiding Officer). In addition, the presiding officer has broad discretion to ask clarifying questions and to direct a party or a witness to provide information, at any time during the proceeding, as set out in subsection (q) of this section.
- (k) Discovery.
- (1) Scope. The presiding officer shall permit only such discovery as the presiding officer determines is essential, considering public policy, the needs of the parties and the commission, the commission's deadlines under FTA96 §252(b)(4)(c), and considering the desirability of making discovery effective, expeditious and cost effective. The presiding officer shall be the judge of the relevance and materiality of the discovery sought.

- (2) Limits. Parties may obtain discovery relevant to the arbitration by submitting requests for information (RFIs), requests for inspection and production of documents (RFPs), requests for admissions (RFAs), and depositions by oral or written examination. RFIs, RFPs and RFAs shall contain no more than 25 requests (subparts are counted as separate requests). The presiding officer, upon a motion filed by a party, may permit a party to propound more than 25 requests provided that the moving party has made a clear demonstration of the relevance of and the need for the additional requests. Factors to be considered by the presiding officer in determining whether to allow additional requests shall include, but are not limited to: the number of unresolved issues, the complexity of the unresolved issues, and whether the proceeding addresses costs and/or cost studies.
- (3) Timing. Discovery may commence upon the filing of the petition for arbitration. Parties shall file a proposed discovery schedule that accommodates the commission's deadlines under FTA96 §252(b)(4)(c), taking into consideration relevant commission regulatory timeframes. The presiding officer may impose a discovery schedule that accommodates the commission's deadlines under FTA96 §252(b)(4)(c). If any party requests an extension that will affect the ability to complete the proceeding within the commission's deadlines under FTA96 §252(b)(4)(c), all parties must agree to the extension and file a joint waiver to extend such deadlines.

- (l) Time for hearing. The arbitration hearing shall be conducted expeditiously and in an informal manner. The presiding officer is empowered to impose reasonable time limits. The presiding officer may continue a hearing from time to time and place to place. Unless additional time is allowed by the commission or additional information is requested by the presiding officer, the hearing may not exceed five working days.

- (m) Evidence.
  - (1) Relevance. The parties may only offer such evidence as is relevant and material to a proceeding and shall provide such evidence as the presiding officer may deem necessary to determination of the proceeding. The presiding officer shall be the judge of the relevance and materiality of the evidence offered.
  - (2) Conformity to rules. The presiding officer shall have the authority to decide whether or not to apply strict rules of evidence (or any other rules) as to the admissibility, relevance, or weight of any material tendered by a party on any matter of fact or expert opinion.
  - (3) Exhibits. The offering of exhibits shall be governed by §22.226 of this title (relating to Exhibits).
  - (4) Offers of proof. Offers of proof shall be governed by §22.227 of this title (relating to Offers of Proof).

- (5) Stipulation of facts. Stipulation of facts shall be governed by §22.228 of this title (relating to Stipulation of Facts).
- (6) Prefiled evidence.
- (A) Parties to the hearing shall provide their direct cases to the presiding officer at least 15 working days prior to the hearing unless the presiding officer establishes a different deadline. Ten copies of the direct case shall be filed with the commission filing clerk and a copy shall be provided to each of the other parties to the hearing at the same time it is provided to the presiding officer.
- (B) The prepared direct case shall include all of the party's direct evidence on all DPL issues in the proceeding, including written direct testimony of all of its witnesses and all exhibits that the party intends to offer as part of its direct case. The prepared case shall present the entirety of the party's direct evidence on each of the issues in controversy and shall serve as the party's complete direct case.
- (C) Prefiled evidence shall include, to the extent allowed or requested by the presiding officer, prefiled rebuttal testimony and exhibits and shall be filed not less than eight working days prior to the hearing unless the presiding officer establishes a different deadline.
- (7) Public Information. Except as provided in §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Information), all materials filed with the commission or provided to the presiding officer shall be considered public information under the Texas Public Information Act (TPIA), Texas Government Code, §552.001, et. seq.

- (n) Sanctions. Whenever a party fails to comply with a presiding officer's order or commission rules in a manner deemed material by the presiding officer, the presiding officer shall fix a reasonable period of time for compliance. If the party does not comply within that time period, then after notice and opportunity for a hearing, the presiding officer may impose a remedy as set forth in §21.71 of this title (relating to Sanctions).
- (o) Decision Point List (DPL) and witness list.
- (1) Ten days after the filing of the response to the petition, the parties shall file a revised DPL that is jointly populated to the extent practicable, taking into consideration the status of discovery.
  - (2) Parties shall file a jointly populated DPL in a format approved by the presiding officer, no later than five working days before the commencement of the hearing. An electronic copy of the DPL shall also be provided. The DPL shall identify all issues to be addressed, the witnesses who will address each issue, and a short synopsis of each witness's position on each issue, with specific citation to the parties' testimony relevant to that issue. The DPL shall also provide the parties' competing contract language. Except as provided in §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Material), all materials filed with the commission or provided to the presiding officer shall be considered public information under the TPIA, Texas Government Code, §552.001, et. seq.

- (p) Cross-examination. Each witness presenting written prefiled testimony shall be available for cross-examination by the other parties to the arbitration. The presiding officer shall judge the credibility of each witness and the weight to be given their testimony based upon their response to cross-examination. If the presiding officer determines that the witness's responses are evasive or non-responsive to the questions asked, the presiding officer may disregard the witness's testimony on the basis of a lack of credibility.
- (q) Clarifying questions. The presiding officer or an arbitration team member, at any point during the proceeding, may ask clarifying questions and may direct a party or a witness to provide additional information as needed to fully develop the record of the proceeding. This has no effect on a party's responsibility to meet its burden of proof. If a party fails to present information requested by the presiding officer, the presiding officer shall render a decision on the basis of the best information available from whatever source derived. Moreover, failure to provide requested information may subject a party to sanctions, as set forth in §21.71 of this title.
- (r) Briefs. The presiding officer may require the parties to submit post-hearing briefs or written summaries of their positions. The presiding officer shall determine the filing deadline and any limitations on the length of such submissions. Reply briefs shall not be permitted unless the presiding officer determines that they would aid in the resolution of the proceeding, after consideration of applicable deadlines.

- (s) Time for decision. The presiding officer shall endeavor to issue a Proposal for Award on the arbitration within 30 days after the filing of any post-hearing briefs. If post-hearing briefs are not filed, the presiding officer shall endeavor to issue the Proposal for Award within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing. The arbitration team shall complete the compulsory arbitration process not later than nine months after the date on which a party receives a request for negotiation under FTA96, unless the parties have waived the nine-month deadline in writing or orally on the record.

(t) Decision.

(1) Proposal for Award. The Proposal for Award shall be based upon the record of the arbitration hearing. The presiding officer may agree with the positions of one or more of the parties on any or all issues or may offer an independent resolution of the issues. The presiding officer is the judge of whether a party has met its burden of proof. The Proposal for Award shall include:

- (A) a ruling on each of the issues presented for arbitration by the parties, including specific contract language;
- (B) a statement of any conditions imposed on the parties to the agreement in order to comply with the provisions of FTA96 §252(c);

- (C) a statement of how the final decision meets the requirements of FTA96 §251, including any regulations adopted by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) pursuant to FTA96 §251;
  - (D) the rates for interconnection, services, and/or network elements established according to FTA96 §252(d);
  - (E) a schedule for implementation of the terms and conditions by the parties to the agreement;
  - (F) a narrative report explaining the rulings included in the Proposal for Award, unless the arbitration is conducted by two or more of the commissioners acting as the presiding officers; and
  - (G) to the extent that a ruling establishes a new or different price for an unbundled network element, combination of unbundled network elements, or resold service, a statement requiring that all certificated carriers be notified of such price either through web posting, mass mailing, or electronic mail within ten days of the date the ruling becomes final.
- (2) Exceptions to the Proposal for Award. Within ten business days of the issuance of the Proposal for Award the parties shall file any Exceptions to the Proposal for Award specifying any alleged ambiguities or errors. To the extent that a party objects to contract language within the Proposal for Award, the party's Exceptions to the Proposal for Award must include alternative contract language along with an explanation of why the alternative language is appropriate, with citation to the record.

- (3) Arbitration Award. The Arbitration Award shall be based upon the record of the arbitration hearing. The presiding officer shall endeavor to issue the Arbitration Award within ten business days of the receipt of parties' Exceptions to the Proposal for Award. The presiding officer may agree with the positions of one or more of the parties on any or all issues or may offer an independent resolution of the issues. The presiding officer is the judge of whether a party has met its burden of proof. The Arbitration Award shall include:
- (A) a ruling on each of the issues presented for arbitration by the parties, including specific contract language;
  - (B) a statement of any conditions imposed on the parties to the agreement in order to comply with the provisions of FTA96 §252(c), if any;
  - (C) a statement of how the final decision meets the requirements of FTA96 §251, including any regulations adopted by the FCC pursuant to §251;
  - (D) the rates for interconnection, services, and/or network elements established according to FTA96 §252(d), as appropriate;
  - (E) a schedule for implementation of the terms and conditions by the parties to the agreement;
  - (F) a narrative report explaining the presiding officer's rationale for each of the rulings included in the final decision, unless the arbitration is conducted by two or more of the commissioners acting as the presiding officers; and

- (G) to the extent that a ruling establishes a new or different price for an unbundled network element, combination of unbundled network elements, or resold service, a statement requiring that all certificated carriers be notified of such price either through web posting, mass mailing, or electronic mail within ten days of the date the ruling becomes final.
- (u) Distribution. The Proposal for Award and Arbitration Award shall be filed with the commission as a public record and shall be mailed by first class mail, or transmitted via facsimile to all parties of record in the arbitration. On the same day that a decision is issued, the presiding officer shall notify the parties by facsimile or electronic mail that a decision has been issued. If a decision involves 9-1-1 issues, the presiding officer shall also notify the Commission on State Emergency Communications (CSEC) by facsimile or electronic mail on the same day.
- (v) Implementation. Unless modified, implementation of the terms and conditions of the Arbitration Award shall comply with §21.99 of this title (relating to Approval of Arbitrated Agreements).
- (w) Motions for Reconsideration. No motions for reconsideration of the Proposal for Award are permitted. Motions for reconsideration of the Arbitration Award shall be filed pursuant to §21.75 of this title (relating to Motions for Clarification and Motions for Reconsideration).

§21.97. Approval of Negotiated Agreements.

(a) Application. Any agreement adopted by negotiation shall be submitted to the commission for review and approval and may be submitted by any one of the parties to the agreement, provided that all parties to the agreement seek approval. The parties requesting approval shall submit an application for approval of the agreement with the commission's filing clerk and must serve a copy on each of the parties to the agreement. Any agreement submitted to the commission for approval is a public record and no portion of the agreement may be treated as confidential information under §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Material). An application for approval of a negotiated agreement shall include:

- (1) a complete and unredacted copy of the negotiated agreement;
- (2) the name, address, and telephone number of each of the parties to the agreement;
- (3) an affidavit by each of the signatory parties explaining how the agreement is consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity, including all relevant requirements of state law; and
- (4) to the extent that an agreement adopted by negotiation establishes a new or different price for an unbundled network element, combination of unbundled network elements, or resold service, a verified statement that all certificated carriers will be notified of such price either through web posting, mass mailing or electronic mail within ten days of the date the ruling becomes final.

- (b) Notice. The presiding officer may require the parties to the agreement to provide reasonable notice of the filing of the agreement. The presiding officer may require publication of the notice in addition to direct notice to affected persons. At the presiding officer's discretion, direct notice may be provided by electronic mail or a web site, provided all affected persons are made aware of the web site. The presiding officer shall determine the appropriate scope and wording of the notice to be provided.
- (c) Proceedings.
- (1) Administrative review. The commission delegates its authority to the presiding officer to administratively approve or deny any negotiated interconnection agreements. Notice of approval or denial shall be issued within 15 days of the filing of the application. If a notice of denial is filed, the notice of denial without prejudice shall include written findings indicating any deficiencies in the agreement. An application considered under this section shall be administratively reviewed by the presiding officer unless the presiding officer determines that a formal review of the application is appropriate pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subsection. Additionally, at the presiding officer's discretion, approval can be referred directly to the commission should the presiding officer determine that there is an issue(s) more appropriately decided by the commission that does not necessarily require formal resolution.
- (2) Formal resolution. If the presiding officer determines that an application for approval of a negotiated agreement should not be approved administratively, a formal review may be conducted and may require formal resolution under §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration) or §21.125 of this title (relating to Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding), as appropriate.

- (d) Comments. An interested person may file comments on the negotiated agreement by filing the comments with the commission's filing clerk and serving a copy of the comments on each party to the agreement within five days of filing of the application. The comments shall include the following information:
- (1) a detailed statement of the person's interests in the agreement, including a description of how approval of the agreement may adversely affect those interests;
  - (2) specific allegations that the agreement, or some portion thereof:
    - (A) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier that is not a party to the agreement; or
    - (B) is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity; or
    - (C) is not consistent with other requirements of state law; and
  - (3) the specific facts upon which the allegations are based.
- (e) Issues. In any proceeding conducted by the commission pursuant to subsection (c)(2) of this section, the commission will consider only evidence and argument concerning whether the agreement, or some portion thereof:

- (1) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier that is not a party to the agreement; or
  - (2) is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity; or
  - (3) is not consistent with other requirements of state or federal law.
- (f) Authority of presiding officer. The presiding officer has broad discretion in conducting the formal resolution, including the authority given to a presiding officer pursuant to §22.202 of this title (relating to Presiding Officer) and pursuant to §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration). Discovery shall be governed by §21.95(k) of this title. In addition, in a formal resolution proceeding, the presiding officer has broad discretion to ask clarifying questions and to direct a party or a witness to provide information, at any time during the proceeding, as set out in §21.95(q) of this title.
- (g) Filing of agreement. Once the presiding officer approves the agreement, then the parties to the agreement shall file two copies, one unbound, of the complete agreement with the filing clerk within 15 working days of the presiding officer's decision. The copies shall be clearly marked with the control number assigned to the proceeding and the language "Complete interconnection agreement as approved (or modified and approved) on (insert date)." Also within 15 business days of the approval of the agreement, the incumbent local exchange company (ILEC) shall post notice of the approved interconnection agreement on its website in a separate, easily identifiable area of the website. The ILEC website shall provide a complete list of approved interconnection agreements, listed alphabetically by carrier, including docket numbers and effective dates. In addition, the ILEC website shall provide a direct link to the commission's website.

Following the issuance of the presiding officer's Arbitration Award under §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration), the parties shall jointly file ten copies of the final interconnection agreement, with the commission's filing clerk, incorporating all contract language ordered by the presiding officer. Any interconnection agreement submitted to the commission for approval is a public record and no portion of the interconnection agreement may be treated as confidential information under §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Material). - (1) a complete and unredacted copy of the arbitrated interconnection agreement including any portions of the agreement that were not the subject of arbitration;
- (2) the name, address, telephone number, facsimile number, and email address of each of the parties to the agreement; and
- (3) to the extent that an agreement adopted by arbitration establishes a new or different price for an unbundled network element, combination of unbundled network elements, or resold service, a verified statement that all certificated carriers will be notified of such price either through web posting, mass mailing or electronic mail within ten days of the date the ruling becomes final.

- (b) Commission approval. The commission will issue its final decision on an agreement adopted by arbitration within 30 days following the filing of the application under subsection (a) of this section. The commission's final decision may reject, approve, or modify the agreement, with written findings as to any deficiencies, or the commission may remand the agreement to the presiding officer for further proceedings. If the commission does not act to approve or reject the agreement adopted by arbitration within 30 days after submission by the parties under subsection (a) of this section, the agreement shall be deemed approved.
- (c) Effective date. An interconnection agreement approved by arbitration becomes effective within ten days after the date that the commission's order approving the interconnection agreement is signed by all Commissioners unless otherwise specified in the order approving the agreement.
- (d) Filing of agreement. Following the commission's approval of the agreement, the parties to the interconnection agreement shall file two copies, one unbound, of the complete agreement, consistent with the commission's direction, with the commission's filing clerk within ten business days of the commission's decision. The copies shall be clearly marked with the control number for the proceeding and the language "Complete interconnection agreement (as modified) and approved on (insert date)." Also within 15 business days of the approval of the agreement, the incumbent local exchange company (ILEC) shall post notice of the approved interconnection agreement on its website in a separate, easily identifiable area of the website. The ILEC website shall provide a complete list of approved interconnection agreements, listed alphabetically by carrier, including docket numbers and effective dates. In addition, the ILEC website shall provide a direct link to the commission's website.

web posting, mass mailing or electronic mail within ten days of the date the ruling becomes final.

- (b) Notice. The commission may require the parties to the agreement to provide reasonable notice of the filing of the agreement. The commission may require publication of the notice in addition to direct notice to affected persons. At the commission's discretion, direct notice may be provided by electronic mail or a web site, provided all affected persons are made aware of the web site. The commission shall determine the appropriate scope and wording of the notice to be provided.
- (c) Proceeding.
- (1) Administrative review. The commission delegates its authority to the presiding officer to administratively approve or deny any interconnection agreement amendments. Notice of approval or denial shall be issued within 15 days of the filing of the application. If a notice of denial is filed, the notice of denial without prejudice shall include written findings indicating any deficiencies in the agreement. Amendments to interconnection agreements shall be administratively reviewed by the presiding officer unless the presiding officer determines that a formal review of the amendments is appropriate pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subsection. At the presiding officer's discretion, approval can be referred directly to the commission should the presiding officer determine that there is an issue(s) more appropriately decided by the commission that does not necessarily require formal resolution.

- (2) Formal resolution. If the presiding officer determines that an application for approval of an amendment to an interconnection agreement cannot be administratively approved, a formal review may be conducted and may require formal resolution under §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration) or §21.125 of this title (relating to Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding), as appropriate.

- (d) Comments. An interested person may file comments on the amended agreement by filing the comments with the commission's filing clerk and serving a copy of the comments on each party to the agreement within five days of the filing of the application.     - (B) is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity; or
    - (C) is not consistent with other requirements of state law; and
  - (3) the specific facts upon which the allegations are based.

- (e) Issues. In any proceeding conducted by the commission pursuant to subsection (c)(2) of this section, the commission will consider only evidence and argument concerning whether the agreement, or some portion thereof:
- (1) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier that is not a party to the agreement; or
  - (2) is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity; or
  - (3) is not consistent with other requirements of state law.
- (f) Authority of presiding officer. The presiding officer has broad discretion in conducting the proceeding, including the authority given to a presiding officer pursuant to §22.202 of this title (relating to Presiding Officer) and pursuant to §21.95 of this title. Discovery shall be governed by §21.95(k) of this title. In addition, the presiding officer has broad discretion to ask clarifying questions and to direct a party or a witness to provide information, at any time during the proceeding, as set out in §21.95(q) of this title.
- (g) Effective date. Any amendment to an existing interconnection agreement shall become effective upon issuance by the commission of a notice of approval.
- (h) Formal approval. When an amendment to an existing interconnection agreement is subject to the formal review process as proposed in subsection (c) of this section, the commission will issue its final decision on the amendment within 90 days following the filing of the application. The commission may reject, approve, or modify the amendment, or the commission may remand the agreement to the presiding officer for further proceedings. If the commission rejects the amendment, the final decision shall include written findings indicating any deficiencies in the amendment.

- (i) Filing of agreement. If the presiding officer approves the amendments to the agreement, the parties to the agreement shall file two copies, one unbound, of the complete amended interconnection agreement with the commission's filing clerk within ten business days of the presiding officer's decision. The copies shall be clearly marked with the control number assigned to the proceeding and the language "Amended interconnection agreement as approved (or modified and approved) on (insert date)." Also within 15 business days of the approval of the agreement, the incumbent local exchange company (ILEC) shall post notice of the approved interconnection agreement on its website in a separate, easily identifiable area of the website. The ILEC website shall provide a complete list of approved interconnection agreements, listed alphabetically by carrier, including docket numbers and effective dates. In addition, the ILEC website shall provide a direct link to the commission's website.

- (1) The name, address, telephone number, facsimile number, and email address of each party to the interconnection agreement and the requesting party's designated representative;
  - (2) A description of the parties' efforts to resolve their differences by negotiation;
  - (3) A list of the discrete issues in dispute, with a cross-reference to the area or areas of the agreement applicable or pertaining to the issues in dispute; and
  - (4) The requesting party's proposed solution to the dispute.
- (b) The settlement conference. The commission staff conducting the informal settlement conference shall notify the parties of the time, date, and location of the settlement conference, which, if held, shall be held no later than ten business days from the date the request was filed. The commission staff may require the respondent to file a response to the request. The parties should provide the appropriate personnel with authority to discuss and to resolve the disputes at the settlement conference. If the parties are in disagreement as to the need for a settlement conference, the presiding officer may deny the request for good cause.

- (c) Conduct. The settlement conference shall be conducted as informal meetings and will not be transcribed. Only parties to the interconnection agreement may participate as parties to the settlement conference.
- (d) Results of settlement conference. The settlement conference may result in an agreement on the resolution of the dispute described in the request. If an agreement is reached, the agreement will be binding on the parties. In the event that the parties do not reach an agreement as a result of the settlement conference, either party may utilize other procedures for dispute resolution provided in this subchapter. The commission staff conducting the informal settlement conference may participate in a subsequent dispute resolution proceeding involving the parties to the informal settlement conference.
- (e) Both formal dispute resolution and informal settlement request. In the event a party negotiating a request for interconnection, services, or network elements under the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (FTA96) has requested both formal dispute resolution and an informal settlement conference, the informal settlement conference will precede formal dispute resolution and any procedural deadlines applicable to formal dispute resolution are tolled for the duration of the informal settlement proceedings, including time needed for commission approval of an informal settlement agreement. To the extent parties do not settle all matters at issue in the informal settlement conference, the formal dispute resolution proceeding shall not be reinitiated until the parties jointly file an update of unresolved issues and a revised procedural schedule.

§21.125. Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding.

- (a) Initiation of formal proceeding. A formal proceeding for dispute resolution under this subchapter will commence when a party files a petition with the commission and, on the same day, delivers a copy of the petition either by hand delivery or by facsimile to the other party (respondent) to the interconnection agreement from which the dispute arises.
- (1) The petition shall comply with §21.33 of this title (relating to Formal Requisites of Pleadings and Documents to be Filed with the Commission). The petition shall include:
- (A) the name, address, telephone number, facsimile number, and email address of each party to the interconnection agreement and the petitioner's designated representative;
  - (B) a description of the parties' efforts to resolve their differences by negotiation;
  - (C) a detailed list of the discrete issues in dispute, with a cross-reference to the area or areas of the parties' most current interconnection agreement, identified by docket number, applicable or pertaining to the issues in dispute;

- (D) an identification of pertinent background facts and relevant law or rules applicable to each disputed issue;
  - (E) the petitioner's proposed solution to the dispute;
  - (F) proposed modified contract language, if any; and
  - (G) a certificate of service.
- (2) To the extent applicable, the petitioner may also include in the petition a request for an expedited ruling under §21.127 of this title (relating to Request for Expedited Ruling) or an interim ruling under §21.129 of this title (relating to Request for Interim Ruling Pending Dispute Resolution).
- (3) The commission shall perform a sufficiency review of a petition. To the extent that a petition is determined to be insufficient, the commission shall file a notice of insufficiency within five business days of receipt of the petition. In the absence of a notice of insufficiency, the petition shall be presumed sufficient.
- (4) Where a request for formal dispute resolution found insufficient, the presiding officer may consider dismissal without prejudice pursuant to §21.67 of this title (relating to Dismissal of a Proceeding) and order the party to refile.
- (b) Response to the petition. Unless §21.127 or §21.129 of this title apply, the respondent shall file a response to the petition within ten days after the filing of the petition. On the response filing date, the respondent shall serve a copy of the response on the petitioner. The response shall specifically affirm or deny each allegation in the petition. The response shall include the respondent's position on each issue in dispute, a cross-reference to the area or areas of the parties' most current interconnection agreement, identified by docket number, applicable or pertaining to the issue in dispute, and the respondent's proposed solution on each issue in dispute. In addition, the response also shall:

- (1) stipulate to any undisputed facts; and
  - (2) identify relevant law or rules applicable to each disputed issue.
- (c) Reply to response to complaint. Unless §21.127 or §21.129 of this title apply, the petitioner may file a reply within five business days after the filing of the response to the petition and serve a copy on respondent on the same day. The reply shall be limited solely to new issues raised in the response to the petition.
- (d) Provisions incorporated from §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration). Except as specified otherwise in this subchapter, the following provisions of §21.95 of this title are incorporated by reference into this subchapter: §21.95(c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), and (r), except that any discovery schedule shall take into consideration the 50-day deadline in subsection (g) of this section.
- (e) Number of copies to be filed. Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, parties shall file ten copies of pleadings subject to this subchapter.

- (f) Participation. Only parties to the interconnection agreement may participate as parties in the dispute resolution proceeding subject to this subchapter.
- (g) Notice and hearing. Unless §21.127 or §21.129 of this title apply, the presiding officer shall make arrangements for the hearing to address the petition, which shall commence no later than 50 days after filing of the complaint. If the parties' joint procedural schedule sets a hearing more than 50 days after the filing of the petition, then approval of the joint procedural schedule shall be conditioned upon the parties filing a joint waiver of the 50-day deadline. The presiding officer shall notify the parties, not less than 15 days before the hearing, of the date, time, and location of the hearing. The hearing shall be transcribed by a court reporter designated by the presiding officer.
- (h) Authority of presiding officer. The presiding officer has broad discretion in conducting the dispute resolution proceeding, including the authority given to a presiding officer pursuant to §22.202 of this title (relating to Presiding Officer) and pursuant to §21.95 of this title (relating to Compulsory Arbitration). The presiding officer shall also have the authority to award remedies or relief deemed necessary by the presiding officer to resolve a dispute subject to the procedures established in this subchapter. The authority to award remedies or relief includes, but is not limited to, the award of prejudgment interest, specific performance of any obligation created in or found by the presiding officer to be intended under the interconnection agreement subject to the dispute, issuance of an injunction, or imposition of sanctions for abuse or frustration of the dispute resolution process subject to this subchapter and Subchapter D of this chapter (relating to Dispute Resolution), except that the presiding officer does not have authority to award punitive or consequential damages.

- (i) Discovery. Parties may obtain discovery by submitting requests for information (RFIs), which include requests for inspection and production of documents, requests for admissions, and depositions by oral examination, as provided by §22.141(b) of this title (relating to Form and Scope of Discovery), and as allowed within the discretion of the arbitrator.

- (j) Prefiled evidence/witness list. The arbitrator shall require the parties to file a direct case and a joint Decision Point List (DPL) on or before the commencement of the hearing. The arbitrator shall require the parties to file their direct cases under the same deadline. The prepared direct case shall include all of the party's direct evidence, including written direct testimony of all of its witnesses and all exhibits that the party intends to offer. The DPL shall identify all issues to be addressed, the witnesses who will be addressing each issue, and a short synopsis of each witness's position on each issue. Except as provided in §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Information), all materials filed with the commission or provided to the arbitrator shall be considered public information under the Texas Public Information Act (TPIA), Texas Government Code, §552.001, et seq.

- (k) Arbitration Award.

- (1) The presiding officer shall endeavor to issue a final decision on the dispute resolution within 30 days after the filing of any post-hearing briefs in the dispute resolution proceeding. If no post-hearing briefs are filed, the presiding officer shall endeavor to issue a final decision within 30 days of the close of the hearing.
- (2) The Arbitration Award shall be filed with the commission as a public record and shall be mailed by first-class mail to all parties of record in the dispute resolution proceeding. On the same day that the Arbitration Award is issued, the presiding officer shall notify the parties by facsimile that it has been issued. If the decision involves 9-1-1 issues, the presiding officer shall also notify the Commission on State Emergency Communications (CSEC) by facsimile on the same day.
- (3) The Arbitration Award shall be based upon the record of the dispute resolution hearing, and shall include a specific ruling on each of the disputed issues presented for resolution by the parties. The presiding officer may agree with the positions of one or more parties on any or all issues or may offer an independent resolution of the issues. The presiding officer is the judge of whether a party has met their burden of proof. The presiding officer may provide for later implementation of specific provisions as addressed in the presiding officer's decision. The decision may also contain the items addressed in §21.95(t)(1) to the extent deemed necessary by the presiding officer to explain or support the decision.
- (4) Within five business days from the date the arbitrator's decision is issued, any commissioner may place the presiding officer's decision on the agenda for the next available open meeting. The decision shall be stayed until the commission affirms or modifies the decision, but such stay shall not stay any order of interim relief already in effect in the proceeding

- (5) If no commissioner places the arbitrator's decision on the open meeting agenda within five business days, the arbitrator's decision is final and effective on the expiration of that fifth business day. The arbitrator shall notify the parties when the arbitrator's decision is deemed final under this paragraph.

- (1) Filing of agreement. Where modifications are ordered, the parties to the interconnection agreement shall file in the same docket number, two copies, one unbound, of the complete agreement with the filing clerk within five working days of approval. The copies shall be clearly marked with the control number assigned to the proceeding and the language "Complete interconnection agreement as approved (or modified and approved) on (insert date)." Also within 15 business days of the approval of the agreement, the incumbent local exchange company (ILEC) shall post notice of the approved interconnection agreement on its website in a separate, easily identifiable area of the website. The ILEC website shall provide a complete list of approved interconnection agreements, listed alphabetically by carrier, including docket numbers and effective dates. In addition, the ILEC website shall provide a direct link to the commission's website.

- (m) Motions for reconsideration. Motions for reconsideration shall be governed by §21.75 of this title (relating to Motions for Clarification and Motions for Reconsideration).

§21.127. Request for Expedited Ruling.

- (a) Purpose. This section establishes procedures pursuant to which a party who files a complaint to initiate a dispute resolution under this subchapter may request an expedited ruling when the dispute directly affects the ability of a party to provide uninterrupted service to its customers or precludes the provisioning of any service, functionality, or network element. The presiding officer has the discretion to determine whether the resolution of the complaint may be expedited based on the complexity of the issues or other factors deemed relevant. Except as specifically provided in this section, the provisions and procedures of §21.125 of this title (relating to Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding) apply.
- (b) Filing a request. Any request for expedited ruling shall be filed at the same time and in the same document as the complaint filed pursuant to §21.125 of this title. The complaint shall be entitled "Complaint and Request for Expedited Ruling." In addition to the requirements listed in §21.125(a) of this title, the complaint shall also state the specific circumstances that make the dispute eligible for an expedited ruling.
- (c) Response to complaint. The respondent shall file a response to the complaint within five business days after the filing of the complaint. In addition to the requirements listed in §21.125(b) of this title, the respondent shall state its position on the request for an expedited ruling. The respondent shall serve a copy of the response on the complainant by hand-delivery or facsimile on the same day as it is filed with the commission.

- (d) Hearing. After reviewing the complaint and the response, the presiding officer will determine whether the complaint warrants an expedited ruling. If so, the presiding officer shall make arrangements for the hearing, which shall, to the extent practicable, commence no later than 20 days after the filing of the complaint. The presiding officer shall notify the parties, not less than three business days before the hearing of the date, time, and location of the hearing. If the presiding officer determines that the complaint is not eligible for an expedited ruling, the presiding officer shall so notify the parties within five days of the filing of the response.
- (e) Decision Point List (DPL) and witness list. Parties shall file a jointly populated DPL and witness list, in a format approved by the presiding officer, no later than five days before the commencement of the hearing. The presiding officer shall require the parties to file their DPL under the same deadline. The DPL shall identify all issues to be addressed, the witness, if any, who will be addressing each issue, and a short synopsis of each witness's position on each issue. If the schedule accommodates the filing of prefiled testimony, parties' DPL shall include specific citation to the parties' testimony relevant to that issue. Except as provided in §21.77 of this title (relating to Confidential Material), all materials filed with the commission or provided to the presiding officer shall be considered public information under the Texas Public Information Act, Texas Government Code, §552.001, et seq.

- (f) Decision. The presiding officer shall issue a written decision on the petition within 15 days after the close of the hearing. On the day of the issuance, the presiding officer shall notify the parties by facsimile that the decision has been issued. If the decision involves 9-1-1 issues, the presiding officer shall also notify the Commission on State Emergency Communications (CSEC) by facsimile on the same day.

- (g) Motions for reconsideration. Motions for reconsideration shall be governed by §21.75 of this title (relating to Motions for Clarification and Motions for Reconsideration).

§21.129. Request for Interim Ruling Pending Dispute Resolution.*(a) Purpose.

- (1) This section establishes procedures pursuant to which a party who files a petition to initiate a dispute resolution under either §21.125 of this title (relating to Formal Dispute Resolution Proceeding) or §21.127 of this title (relating to Request for Expedited Ruling) may also request an interim ruling on whether the party is entitled to relief pending the resolution of the merits of the dispute.
- (2) This section is intended to provide an interim remedy when the dispute compromises the ability of a party to provide uninterrupted service or precludes the provisioning of any service, functionality or network element (including issues of pricing and/or payment for any service functionality, or network element when such pricing and/or payment issues effect provisioning).
- (3) However, in no event shall nonpayment of undisputed amounts provide good cause for interim relief. The party seeking an interim ruling on payment issues bears the burden of proof to demonstrate what amounts are not disputed and what payments have been made pursuant to applicable contract provisions.

- (b) Filing a request. Any request for an interim ruling shall be filed at the same time and in the same document as the petition filed pursuant to §21.125 or §21.127 of this title. The heading of the petition shall include the phrase "Request for Interim Ruling." The petition shall set forth the specific grounds supporting the request for interim relief pending the resolution of the dispute, as well as a statement of the potential harm that may result if interim relief is not provided. A petition that includes a request for interim ruling shall be verified by affidavit. Such petition must list the contact person, address, telephone number, facsimile number, and email address for both the petitioner and respondent.

- (c) Service. The petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition and request for an interim ruling on the respondent by hand-delivery or facsimile on the same day as the pleading is filed with the commission. The petitioner shall certify on the pleading filed with the commission that service has been accomplished in compliance with this section.
- (d) Response. The respondent shall file a response to the petition within three business days of the filing of the request for an interim ruling.
- (e) Hearing. Within six business days of the filing of a petition and request for interim ruling, the presiding officer selected under this subchapter shall conduct a hearing to determine whether interim relief should be granted during the pendency of the dispute resolution process. The presiding officer will notify the parties of the date and time of the hearing by facsimile within three business days of the filing of a petition and request for interim ruling. The parties should be prepared to present their positions and evidence on factors including but not limited to: the type of service requested; the economic and technical feasibilities of providing that service; and the potential harm in providing the service.

- (f) Evidence. The presiding officer will issue an interim ruling on the request based on the evidence provided at the hearing. Evidence to support a request for interim ruling shall be provided by affidavit or shall be verified.
- (g) Consideration. The presiding officer may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, grant a request for interim relief only on a showing of good cause. In determining whether good cause exists, the presiding officer shall consider:
- (1) whether there is a substantial likelihood of success on the merits of the movant's claims;
  - (2) whether there is a substantial threat that the movant will suffer irreparable injury if interim relief is not granted;
  - (3) whether the threatened injury to the movant outweighs any harm that the other party might suffer if interim relief is granted, including consideration of both parties' ability to compete;
  - (4) the need for relief prior to the reasonably anticipated date of a final decision in the proceeding; and
  - (5) any other relevant factors as determined by the presiding officer.
- (h) Ruling. The presiding officer shall issue a written ruling on the request for interim relief within five business days of the close of the hearing and will notify the parties by facsimile of the ruling. If the decision involves 9-1-1 issues, the presiding officer shall also notify the Commission on State Emergency Communications (CSEC) by facsimile on the same day. The interim ruling will be effective throughout the dispute resolution proceeding until a final decision is issued pursuant to this subchapter, unless overturned by the presiding officer or otherwise determined by the commission upon appeal.

This agency hereby certifies that the proposal has been reviewed by legal counsel and found to be within the agency's authority to adopt.
