Public Utility Commission of Texas Imposes $125,000 in Penalties Also Revokes Six Non-Functioning CCNs; Affirms Temporary Manager

AUSTIN – In an open meeting today, the Public Utility Commission of Texas approved a settlement agreement requiring the payment of $125,000 in administrative penalties. The Commission also revoked eight certificates of convenience and necessity (CCNs) and affirmed the continuation of temporary management of a water utility.

The Commission approved a settlement agreement against a municipally owned utility regarding a failure to provide non-spinning reserve service (Docket 49332). The MOU agreed to pay an administrative penalty of $125,000.

The Commission also ordered the revocation of six water CCNs because the entity that held the CCN no longer existed (Dockets 48748, 48753, 48755, 49121, 49180, 49181).

Finally, the Commission affirmed that the appointment of a temporary manager to a water utility should continue (Docket 48650).

About the Public Utility Commission
